

LITERATURE 4

Course Description: In this course, students will learn the “Seven Loves of Literature”, enabling them to develop a life-long appreciation for literary excellence. They will learn through reading classic literature. Major literary texts to be studied include: (1) Proverbs, (2) A Child’s Story of the Prophet Brigham Young, (3) Treasure Island, (4) Poetry of Noyes, Longfellow, and Wordsworth, (5) Secret Garden, and (6) a Shakespeare play. In addition to being able to discuss their learning, students will demonstrate their understanding of these topics through identifying literary elements through marking their texts, creating t-charts, writing essays, and recitations. The most reliable way to receive specific information about course work, including topics and timing, is through Edline. To support your student, please consider discussing the literature each week.
